Subject: Sugar tax
– Forwarding of communication

The EFTA Surveillance Authority has received a communication that alleges the Norwegian authorities are granting unlawful state aid with the chocolate and sugar goods levy and the non-alcoholic drinks levy.

The Norwegian authorities are hereby invited to comment on the communication. Please clearly indicate in your reply whether there are any business secrets contained in the information provided, and annex a non-confidential version if necessary.

In addition to a response in writing, the Authority would like to discuss the issue with the Norwegian authorities before the Christmas holidays. We would appreciate if you could get in touch with the case handler, Íris Ísberg to schedule a video conference.

Yours faithfully,

Christian Jordal
Acting Deputy Director
Competition and State Aid Directorate
